staceykasdorf A fancy dress with no tights, no jacket, dressy shoes and a crown in the middle of winter? Yes. Yes she did. Let me introduce you to Princess Everly York. She would leave the house like this every day if I let her. Some days I do - you learn to pick your battles 🤔. She's especially happy that her unicorn backpack from @zoochini matches her crown. She actually gets excited about packing it up for preschool! What's one thing your kid likes dressing up as? Any superheroes out there?

days_of_violet Potty training has been a lengthy process for us. Some days Violet doesn't have an accident and uses the potty everytime. Other days she waits to tell me after. These adorable training pants from @zoochini have been very helpful in getting to want her to be a big girl and use the potty everytime. She absolutely loves these adorable "big girl undies." They're super soft with adorable little forest animals on the back. Head over to @zoochini and check out all the different designs. @brandingmonster .

busylittleizzy (ad) Well, Izzy's proof, you are what you eat! 🍌 Just kidding! I know I'm biased, but I think Izzy looks pretty adorable in her new hooded poncho. 🍌🍌 Do your kids love hooded towels? If you have followed us for a while now, you know we have been using @zoochini brand hooded towels for years & love them! 🍌 They are soft, thick & last wash after wash. This however is our first hooded poncho & the quality is not shockingly just as amazing. It's a bit thinner than their hooded towels, if you are already familiar with them. It's also UPF50+, which will come in handy next summer. 🌟 #theseareafewofmyfavoritethings .

girl.mom.of.1 The cutest little kitty I ever saw thanks to @zoochini. Her hat and mitts are so cozy, and this is seriously the only hat she doesn't try to pull off!! I love it! .

Do your little ones try to pull off their hats and mitts?

danielle.nico1e Cutest little bunny I ever did see 🐰

We've been loving Brielle's new Bunny mitts and hat from @zoochini . They stay on and are so stylish and warm - we are especially loving the hat with the scarf combined for these cold winter days we've been having lately! 🌨️🌨️

How has the weather been where you are? Has winter officially hit yet?

When the girls started going to school this year, I went looking for the perfect backpack for both of them. These @zoochini Olive the Owl and Jaime the Giraffe backpacks are so awesome! My girls love the 3D features, but my fave feature is how easy it is to get organized with these backpacks. They have mesh water bottle pockets as well as pencil and utility holders. I also love the easy to find name tag, so I know we won't be losing these fun backpacks!

Swipe left to see a sweet moment I captured of these two while they were plotting to take over the world... or maybe how they were plotting to make me give them more snacks afterwards 🍌
